This Film festival is organized under the aegis of Federation of Film Societies of India (FFSI), in association of Sri Sarathi Studios and in cooperation with Ministry of Information and Broadcasting, Government of India, Directorate of Film Festivals and brought by Delegation of the European Union to India, New Delhi.

The European Union (EU), which consists of 28 countries, has been known for producing world's best of Creative Cinema.

The 23rd European Film Festival has some unusual stories to tell: the lines of reality are blurred when the cyber world comes to life; a play done by a motley cast of antiheroes provides an opportunity for redemption; a man stuck in an unhappy marriage practices unusual ways to assert his freedom; a music critic finds his father irksome when they both begin to compete for the attention of an attractive psychotherapist; and three Kurdish siblings come together unexpectedly in a hair-raising journey during which they are pursued by angry relatives. These are just some of the curious themes of the European Union Film Festival of 2018.
